Principal's Report – Theresa Lengal / Julie Scanlan

- Kalahari fundraiser. This fundraiser brought in about $14,000 at Mrs. Lengal's previous school. We buy the day passes for $15 and sell for $25. Promote this fundraiser around Thanksgiving. Incentive provided to top sellers.
- Gift Cards - Request to the PTA for 12 x $10 gift cards for Halloween Costume competitions at school. 2 gift cards per team will be given.
- Halloween Dance - This event has been canceled due to family events happening the same night at 2 elementary schools.
- ShoreWay Shoutouts cart - We need more candy as the program has been a big success. Shorebucks are saved until the end of the quarter. Names are pulled for a bigger prize. Needing donations for the larger prizes.

President - Natasha Berridge

- Bylaws - Amending Article 5, Section 3; Article 6, Section ; Article 7, Section 2; Article 10, Section 5; Article12, Section 3- approved by all at the meeting
- Open positions- see below
- Parent night out- open to ideas- Possibly a week night in December or January

Guest Speaker - Leslie Knox - Avon Lake Citizens for Schools- (Did not attend)

- Speak about the bond
- Answer any questions members may have
- Gather names for those who may be willing to volunteer to assist us

VP Fundraising – Alessia Lloyd (apologies)

- Marco's pizza night
- Speed Pitch Challenge this week
 - 2023, we had 109 kids participate and have raised over $5,500 so far. Another check will be mailed out this week to put us over $6,000 and total overall we may get to around $6,500 if all the money pledged comes in.
 - 2022 = 110 participants, $7,610 raised (3 students raised over $500 each)
 - 2021 = 150 participants, $7,604 raised
- If any PTA member / Parent has an issue with a fundraising event we would like to remind them to contact the PTA or School rather than directly contacting our fundraising partners.
- Bench Sponsorship - Some families were left off the principals' email and we want to confirm these families do have benches and that those families are also recognized.
- Marcos Pizza night - This THURSDAY (10/19)! A reminder to all families to order pizza and choose Troy.

- Call for volunteers!
